Supporting Education to Employment (E2E)

CPIT Foundation

PATHWAYS

Choosing Secondary or Equivalent Studies

Personal awareness
- Identify skills, values and personal goals
- Consult teachers, parents and peers

Exploring options
- Investigate career and learning options
- Look at web-based and printed information
- Attend career expos and taster activities
- Consult teachers, employers, role models, career counsellors

Planning
- Map out a pathway to a chosen career
- Develop a portfolio of learning and other activities
- Check vocational pathways

UNDERTAKING SECONDARY OR EQUIVALENT STUDIES

Choosing Tertiary Studies

Review achievements
- Evaluate progress in learning pathway
- Evaluate progress in portfolio of development activities
- Refine statement of skills, values and personal goals
- Consult teachers, parents and peers

Exploring options
- Investigate career and tertiary learning options
- Look at web-based and printed information
- Attend career and tertiary expos
- Consult teachers, employers, role models, career counsellors and tertiary institutions

Planning
- Identify qualifications available
- Identify institutions offering the targeted qualifications
- Identify activities that contribute to the portfolio of learning

UNDERTAKING TERTIARY STUDIES

Transitioning to Employment

Document achievements
- Create a resume that lists learning and other achievements and capabilities
- Customise resume to specific opportunities

Prepare for employment search
- Draft covering letter for resume
- Gain interview skills
- Seek employment opportunities
  - Advertisements
  - Networks
  - Volunteering

Seek feedback on
- Applications
- Interviews
- Work experience
- Internships
- Projects

EMPLOYMENT

Lifelong Learning

Review portfolio
- Add in achievements gained in employment
- Review skills, values and personal goals
- Consult supervisors, colleagues, role models and professional networks

Explore options
- Investigate cross-skilling and upskilling options
- Identify additional qualifications
- Identify institutions and organisations that offer skilling options

Planning
- Map out upskilling pathway

CPIT FOUNDATION SUPPORT STRATEGIES

Choosing Secondary or Equivalent Studies
- School student awards
- School student participation in CPIT activities and CPIT Precinct

Choosing Tertiary Studies
- Projects that expand/enhance student learning and pathways to tertiary qualifications
- Projects that introduce students to tertiary pathways

Transitioning to Employment
CPIT Student Awards
- Support for CPIT students to broaden their knowledge, undertake work experience or internships
- Support for linking CPIT students to industry

Lifelong Learning
- Support for activities that broaden CPIT student and graduate experience
- Support for activities that strengthen CPIT student/industry/ community links

EXAMPLES OF CPIT FOUNDATION FUNDED PROJECTS

Choosing Secondary or Equivalent Studies
- Rakatahi Awards for Māori Excellence in school achievement
- Big Idea

Choosing Tertiary Studies
- Mathematics prize
- Study of Pasifika student success factors

Transitioning to Employment
Karen Lewis Awards
- Pastry course, Melbourne
- European internship
- Work experience support
- Dietician work experience in PNG support
- Plains FM internship
- Website Design Internship
- Supported Canterbury Tales Transitional Architecture Project

Lifelong Learning
- 3D Printer – broadening engineering, architecture, re-creative industry skills
- ArtBox – gallery space for emerging artists
- CAPL Scholarships for Recognition of Prior Learners